

CIO COUNCIL MINUTES
September 29, 2005
1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.
Grimes Building, First Floor North Conference Room

Welcome and Introductions

Larry Murphy opened the meeting and introductions were made.

Symantec

Eric Becker, Scott McReady, and Gene, Melser from Symantec presented information on Managed and Monitored Security Services. DHS did a 60-day managed and monitored security services pilot project with Symantec and Judicial Branch had Symantec do a network vulnerability assessment for them.

CISO

Greg Fay reported that the Information Security Office has recently purchased an assessment product and will be receiving training and working with ITE. Larry Brennan has left state government to pursue other opportunities.

CIO Sub-Committee Updates

No updates.

Committee Chairs

Technology Governance Board Update

IT Architecture and Portfolio Management

Wes Hunsberger reported on the TGB Service-Oriented Architecture and Enterprise Portfolio Management initiatives.

Security Standards

Greg Fay reported that October is Cyber Security Awareness Month. There will be an after-action report on the Zotob incident. Work continues on policies and standards.

JCIO Update

Steve Gast reported on purchases through the JCIO consolidated purchasing efforts. A group will meet next month to talk about standard purchases for servers, similar to what is in place for desktops.

Rich Jacobs reported that Nancy Richardson will stay on the TGB.

ICN Update

Phil Groner reported that Internet rates will be lower effective November 1 and there will be additional capacity. ICN is reviewing Ethernet rates and bundling of services. New products being considered are IP video and Ethernet over TDM. ICN is working on customer service improvement, including project management and service delivery.

November meeting

The November meeting would normally be November 17 because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Because the 2005 Iowa Public CIO Summit will be held on November 18 at the Airport Holiday Inn, the Summit will serve as the CIO Council meeting for November.

Meeting was adjourned at 3 pm.
